

GENERAL INFORMATION

AJ building control design specializes in standard domestic building control packages for single and double story extensions as well as internal remodeling, loft conversions and barn conversions.

What's Included in quotation:

- Full regulation drawings suitable for building control approval, inclusive of plans elevations, sections, details and specification.
- Working together with your selected SE to ensure all proposals work structurally and aesthetically to your approval.

What's not Included in quotation:

- Site visit. No site visit is required. More information to be provided with photos or further details as requested.
- Electric drawings/diagrams
- Structural calculations and diagrams including foundation plan
- Amendments. Amendments from yourself, client and building control are charged at hourly rate on top of quotation.
- Submission of building control application
- Plumbing drawings inclusive of heating, mains water etc
- Any form of CDM regulations
- Notation of floor areas/floor finishes